Bangladesh Road Transport Corporation (BRTC) is a state-owned public transport agency responsible for providing safe and affordable bus and truck services across the country. Established in 1961, BRTC plays an important role in improving road transport, reducing traffic pressure, and supporting the mobility needs of millions of people. The corporation operates a wide range of services, including city buses, inter-district buses, and international routes to neighboring countries. BRTC also runs special services during emergencies, national events, and school or college transportation. Besides passenger transport, BRTC manages a large fleet of trucks that support government logistics and goods movement. It operates several training institutes to develop skilled drivers and mechanics, contributing to road safety and employment. As a government organization, BRTC aims to ensure reliable, comfortable, and accessible transportation for the people of Bangladesh.
